

Weekly Prayer

April 28 - May 4, 2024

Psalm of the Week – Psalm 95

Psalm 95:8-9

⁸Do not harden your hearts as you did at Meribah,
as you did that day at Massah in the wilderness.

⁹where your ancestors tested me;
they tried me, though they had seen what I did.

[See Exodus 17:1-7]

Prayer for our Missionaries

Rhonda Formanek (Leipzig, Germany)

Praise the Lord for the very generous donors inside and outside the church who have provided the funds for the remodeling phase of the Leipzigprojekt's new building. Thank the Lord for his provision for Rhonda's mom, and please pray for her mom's adjustment to her new assisted living facility. Continue to pray for Rhonda as she ministers with Leipzigprojekt and that the church would grow their love for Christ throughout this year.

Prayer for Local Ministry

Haycock Camping Ministries

Testimony from Hannah Pawling:

Haycock Camping Ministries has impacted my life in many ways. From being a camper to a counselor and the Day Camp Coordinator, Haycock has challenged and supported me to become who I am today. This camp brings people together from all walks of life to share in praising and learning more about Jesus and who He is. This ministry is truly a light in the darkness for the campers and their families. It provides a safe encouraging environment to learn and share the Gospel and make friendships that last a lifetime.

A Prayer for Transformation

Keep Massah and Meribah in my mind, Lord. When I feel my needs are in short supply, I often wonder about your care for me. Too quickly I stop trusting your provision and fall back into relying on my own schemes. Too quickly I grumble and complain. When the Israelites do this, it's easy to recognize, but I feel justified in all my complaints and doubts. Help me to learn from the Son who did "not put the Lord to the test." Amen.
